“In such a world, the last thing a teacher needs to give her pupils is more information. They already have far too much of it. Instead people need the ability to make sense of information, to tell the difference between what is important and what is unimportant, and above all to combine many bits of information into a broad picture of the world.”

Yuval Noah Harari “XXI lessons for the XXI century”

So what do we do?

“When the people lead the Leaders will follow”

Mahatma Gandhi / President Eisenhower / Florence Robinson
